HUJAMBO

is an informative game which challenges you to think and talk with others about values in life.

HUJAMBO

hands you a lot of material, so you can give a thought to values in a playful, creative and yet serious way. Values that are important or that might become important in each person's life.

HUJAMBO

is Swahili and it means: "Who are you?"
A question which the game wants to help young people find an answer to.

HUJAMBO

is a publication of Don Bosco Youth-Net ivzw, which is produced with the financial support of the European Youth Foundation.

Started as an acrobat, became a priest and ultimately an 'educator' – for so long on the move with the boys, Don Bosco worked to create a meeting place where they would feel loved and would "be" at home. Even today, 'Don Bosco' is a name that describes action. Evangelisation and Education is still at the centre of his philosophy. Self-realisation, broadening one's horizons, giving and creating life chances ... they all fit into the Don Bosco way of working. Don Bosco still challenges you to live your life with all the love and trust that you have.

Game

Inspired by ... people who have an effect on you, by whom you are touched - often these people have a special connection with you. You can be yourself when you are with them. They challenge you to surpass your limits to broaden your horizons. They allow you to be yourself.

Every participant mimes someone from the list. The others have to guess which person is being portrayed.
