HUJAMBO

is an informative game which challenges you to think and talk with others about values in life.

HUJAMBO

hands you a lot of material, so you can give a thought to values in a playful, creative and yet serious way. Values that are important or that might become important in each person's life.

HUJAMBO

is Swahili and it means: "Who are you?"
A question which the game wants to help young people find an answer to.

HUJAMBO

is a publication of Don Bosco Youth-Net ivzw, which is produced with the financial support of the European Youth Foundation.

Action Card

We approach young people and the world they live in, with an open mind and in a respectful way. By meeting the other, unprejudiced, we create an atmosphere of tolerance. This is a challenge for young people to broaden their horizon and to deal positively with diversity in society.

Openness

Expression

The participants are split into small groups. Each group gets a newspaper and has to look for a person who or a situation that could get the "openness and respect" award. The winners are presented to the group. This way a discussion can be held.

Guiding questions

1. Why did you choose that person/situation?
2. What do you mean by openness and respect?

Material: newspapers

Openness

Handicraft

Each participant creates a symbol representing respect and openness. Afterwards they can explain why and how this symbol represents those values.

Material: all sorts of handicraft material like paper, scissors, glue, paint, coloured pencils, waste material
